

NOISE AT WORK

FREE HEARING LOSS PREVENTION SEMINAR

Hosted by:

Amherst College and the Western Mass OSHA Alliance

Friday June 25, 7:30am to 11:00am

Amherst College, Amherst, Massachusetts,

Merrill Science Building 3rd Floor, Room 3

Directions: Take I-90 (Mass Turnpike) to Exit 4 (I-91), Take I-91 north to exit 19 (Rte. 9), Take Rte. 9 east to Rte. 116 south, These roads intersect at a stoplight at the top of a hill, you will see the college ahead or see <https://cms.amherst.edu/aboutamherst/visiting/directions>

Presented to you as a product of the US DOL OSHA/Industrial Hearing Testing/American Safety Supply, Inc./Massachusetts Consultation Program Noise Alliance - Working together to prevent hearing loss

American Safety Supply Inc.

Speakers:

Jean Manoli, Massachusetts Division of Occupational Safety

Dr. Steven Fournier, Industrial Hearing and Testing

Chris Caron, President, American Safety Supply, Inc

Agenda

7:30am - 8:00am	Registration
8:00am	Welcome, Mary E. Hoyer, Area Director, US DOL/OSHA Springfield, MA
8:00am - 9:15 am	Noise Hazards and Noise Related Damage to Hearing
9:15am - 9:25am	BREAK
9:25am - 10:40am	Evaluation of Noise Hazards, Noise Regulations, Solutions to Noise hazards including Engineering Controls, PPE, and Hearing Testing, and Best Practices
10:40am - 11:00am	Questions and Answers/ Hands-on look at noise solutions

Please contact Will Donnell at Amherst College by email wdonnell@amherst.edu to register by giving your name, company name, phone number and email address - There is no cost to register the Seminar is FREE